

AAL, founded in 1989, is an accounting and information technology company. Since 1992, AAL has been serving financial institutions, private sector and Government agencies, that provide either credit, loan guarantees, regulatory oversight, or serve the secondary capital market such as:

- ▶ Ginnie Mac at HUD
- ▶ Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC)
- ▶ US Small Business Administration (SBA)
- ▶ USDA-Rural Development (formerly Farmers Home Administration/FmHA)

With over 14 years of experience in the financial industry, covering institutional lenders and institutional borrowers, AAL has become the premier firm serving the financial sector. AAL provides a variety of services such as risk assessment, risk management, loan reviews, bank internal audits, data mining and data analytics, financial/credit modeling, compliance reviews, financial analysis, and performance assessment.

AAL is a NASBA (National Association of State Boards of Accountancy) approved/accredited sponsor of continuing professional education (CPE). What this means is that all of our training meets the highest professional standards. Attendees participating in our training can get certificates to comply with their CPE requirements.
